

IAFL Admission Supplementary Information for the Canadian Chapter

The Canadian Chapter Admissions Committee considers bilingual or multilingual language proficiency an advantage.

An applicant may have been practicing in Canada for less than 10 years, but they must have been practicing as a lawyer for 10+ years;

Applicants must be authorized to practice law by their Provincial Law Society.

“Peers” are considered as practicing lawyers in Canada or another jurisdiction.

May 2024